Enviable Distinction.

Longer ones in proportion.

IN the midst of a general, and in many instances, not unfounded prejudice against many of the medical remedies of the day,

DR. WILLIAM EVANS' PHLIS have the enviable distinction of an universal approbation. They are perhaps the only medicine publicly advertised, that has the full and unreserved testimony of medical men in its favor; if not the only one which gives full satisfaction to its purchasers. DR. W. EVANS has the satisfaction of knowing that his

are not only ragulated, recommended and prescribed by the most experienced physicians in their daily practice, but also taken by those gentlemen themselves, whenever they feel the symptoms of these diseases in which they well know them to be efficacious. He knows this to be and pre-eminent virtues.

A single trial of Dr. W. EVANS' MEDICINES in any of these cases will produce such effects as will indicate their incomparable superiority, and induce such a use of them as will ensure a speedy and unquostionable cure. The purchaser, however, should be careful to get them genuine at Dr. W. EVANS' OFFICE, No 100 Chatham street, New York, or any of his authorised Agents, as all others are base and ignorant impositions. For further particulars, he respectfully requests the public to peruse his other advertisements and medical papers, which may be depended upon for their strict and acknowledged truth.

THE VICISSITUDES OF THE SUMMER and the preceding Spring, have afforded peculiar opportunities of exemplifying, in this country, the happy

We congratulate our readers, on the return of believe we cannot offer them a more grateful treat, than the re-publication of the Declaration, which should be read at least on this day, by every Ameriean freeman.

In this day's Gazette we have commenced the publication of the Independent Treasury bill, as it passed the U. S. Schate, and was rejected in the other house. It will be completed in our next, and we invite for it an attentive perusal, especially by those Whigs who read and think for themselves, and do not pin their faith to the sleeves of others. We think it will not be found that bugbear-that thing to be sneered at.

The Richmond Enquirer still perseveres in the opinion, in which it seems well fortified, that the Democratic majority in the State Legistature, will be two, and contends that there are cleven others opposed to Mr Rives. The Enquirer says: "With a popular majority, too, of from 4 to 5,000 -and a brilliant prospect of nearly double that number in 1840, in the great presidential issue. We again proclaim, All's well! Heads up! Skies bright."

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

To this subject we have lately called the attention of our readers more than once. We have done so, in consequence of a thorough conviction, that the substitution of any one else for Col. Independent of this, we can perceive no good forgot he was out of the Divisial territory: a citi. run. Those who are acquainted with the duties of run. Those who are acquainted with the duties of the office, represent them as by no means onerous; that in fact, the office is almost a sinecure. The Vice President receives an annual salary of $5,000, and has only to preside over the Senate--to decide questions of order, and vote when there is a tie .-Why, then should Col. Johnson be asked to give place to another? We think the services of Col. Johnson, pre-eminently entitle him to it. He has blood in mc, besides it is doubtful that General served us for more than thirty years, faithfully in the Jackson is akin to me, the General is a rale Irish- Congress of the United States. Then, we say, why should there be any attempt to translate him, from the State Department, to the Vice Presidency? thereby, probably, to produce difficulty and dissatisfaction in the appointment of a successor, to drive into retireoff the track, as a candidate? We can assure the friends of Mr. Forsyth, that Col. We are now in the midst of the wheat harvest, dies and business. and fromall we hear such crops have not for many years greeted the eyes of the husbandinan. For one year at least we are not likely to be tributary to Ohio, or any other state for our breadstuffs.

"Clouds and darkness, (says Bicknell,) rest on our money market. This week, ending on Saturday last, was the severest that has been experienecd since the great pressure. The out door rates exacted."

In New York the money market is extremely tight. Stocks have fallen in consequence of the vast amount thrown into market, and still continue to decline. Specie is difficult to be obtained in New York. Half dollars and Mexican dollars bear a premium from 1 to 2 per cent.

Wo have had the pleasure of reading the first number of a new paper recently established by Messrs. Holbrook, Henlock, & Bratton, at Harrisburg Pa., entitled "State Capital Gazette." A profusion of jewels and jewelled ornaments are worn. Indeed there is a superabundant display of trinkets. The display of them has come in from the example of the Queen, (who has no taste in dress) who wears as many glittering gewgaws as she can conveniently put upon her little person. The atterdants, his coachman and a servant, were paralysed by fear on the first attack, while he himself made a brave defence, till, being overpowered by numbers, he was thrown down, and it is said, wounded in the neck. The robbers must have been not a little surpr sed to find in the pockets of the King only a few scudi and a plain silver watch, whereas his servants had gold and gold watches. The robbers likewise earried off Don Miguel's valuable fowling piece, which had been discharged. The police is cudea. voring to discover the perpetrators of this act.

OCCUPATIONS OF A FUTURE LIFE .- We appro-11 hend that very vague and low ideas are generally Old Whiskey & London Porter. entertained with regard to the happiness of hear The tree of life is thought to bear but one kind of fruit. The state of the blessed is imagined-not as a state in which every faculty may have full development and free scope-but a narrow round of pleasure indeed; yet of pleasures the same to all and always. We often hear the life of heaven spoken of as a life spent in singing praises day and night without ceasing. Now, though devotion constitutes the purest enjoyment of which man is capable, the immediate acts of devotion would grow tedious, unless the mind would roam abroad, and seek new muterials for pious thoughts, new subjects of praise, new fuel to feed the flame of love. This is the case with the christian on earth. A life of abstract devotion has no charms for him. But it is his aim and his delight to seek out in the course of nature, in the ways of providence, in the haunts of men, in the various posts of duty, themes for praise, thanksgiving and love; and when he approaches the altar of his God, he lays upon it an offering which every scene, every circumstance of life, has contributed to render rich and fragrant. Thus must it be in heaven. The tree of life must bear divers kinds of fruits, to suit the tastes, to expand the minds, to cherish the devotion of those who have passed through unlike scenes of earthly discipline. The reason why we are told so little in the Bible about the joys reserved for the righteous, is, not that they are in their nature inconceivable, but that they are in their variety inexhaustible, so that, should they be set forth in writing, even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Rev. Mr. PEABODY.

"THOU GOD SEEST ME."-As the chaplain in the Wethersfield State's prison was passing the cell of a culprit, who was reading the Bible, he was accosted thus: "If I had only known the words before I committed crime, I had not been for twenty-eight years a tenant of the State's Prison."-What words? said the chaplain. 'Why these in Gen. XVI. 13, the words of Hagar, "Thou God seest me." And he was not the only prisoner who made similar statements to the chaplain. A number told him that they found it impossible to perpetrate the crimes for which they were sent there, until they had banished the thought of the omniscent and omnipresent God from their minds. and LOTS, to wit.
No. 1. A LARGE BRICK HOUSE and LOT on the corner of Mulberry and Water Street, formerly occu-pied by me as a residence and a Grocery Store, and at present occupied as a Tavern by E. Perkins. This Lot fronts 66 feet on Water street and runs back the whole length of the square to Hill street, and fronts the same number of feet on that street. The llouse and Let will be divided so as to make six separate tenements, a plat of which may be seen by calling at my store on Hunt's Row. The very commodious and well arranged Brick Stables attached to this property, will constitute one ten-ement, and will be sold separately from the other prop-

No. 2 and 3. The TWO NEW BRICK HOUSES on Hunt's Row, now occupied, the one by myself and the other by S. Dunn, as Grocery Stores. These Houses were erected within the last two years, are well arranged ed for business houses, and are in a polition to command a large share of business

No. 4 'The undivided moiety of the BRICK HOUSE and LO I', on Mulberry street, immediately opposite the upper end of the Market House, now occupied as a Greeery. This is decidedly one of like best business houses in the city, commanding, from its position, a very large abare of the patronage of those attending the market. The other half of this property is owned by John L. Martin, Esq. of Louisville and could be doubt. John L. Martin, Esq. of Louisville, and could be doubt-less purchased by any one desiring the whole.

The whole of the above property is eligibly situated for business, and is desirable to any one wishing to invest their capital in real estate, on account of the readiness with which it rents at a good interest.

Terms of sale.—One fourth of the purchase money will be required in 4 months, upon the execution of a negotiable note, payable in either of the Banks of the city; the balance in one and two years, with interest on the last payment only. DAVID MEGOWAN.

ness and despatch on the most reasonable terms.

The may be well for the Farmers, Merchants and Citizens generally, to keep an eye to the difference in expense and natural effect on the prosperity of the country by feeding and clothing the mechanics here at home, and those that live East of the Alleghaneys. The more figuring and cyphering there is done about the matter, the more Bacon, Flour, Corn, Dry Goods, and Furniture will be sold here amongst us. I will take a few thousand pounds of Bacon, and two or three hundred barrels of Corn, in exchange for Furniture by way of experiment.
